BOY CONFESSES ARSON. Angry because he could not get off to go to Camden, it is charged that George Bloomfield, a bound boy on the farm of Mrs. Emily Slaughter, two miles west of Dover, Del., set fire to the place toward nightfall, yesterday. Everything being exceptionally dry, the farm buildings were soon a mass of flames.

The boy, then penitent, went to Mrs. Slaughter and told her he had taken a box from the kitchen and a match from the safe and made a fire in the stable. Mrs. Slaughter screamed for help and rushed to the barn. but opened the door of the cow stable, from which burst a flame which set fire to her clothing, almost suffocating her. A niece of Mrs. Slaughter had followed her, and seizing the burning woman and slamming the door at the same time, saved her aunt from destruction. The woman frantically ran around the building, seeking some avenue of escape for three fine horses which were moaning and roast-

This is the machine invented by Wm. C. Free of Chicago,the machine which you have read so much about in the magazinesthe machine which has a score of altogether new improvements—and the machine which is sold at a price so much lower than you are accustomed to pay for the highest grade sewing machine, that if we told you what the price was, it would prejudice you against the machine. We insist on showing you the machine and its points of superiority before telling you what a bargain it really is.

And to give you a better chance still of finding out for yourself how perfect it is, and to show you our absolute confidence in The FREE, we want you to Try this machine-test it-sew with it on all kinds of material-if you then are not entirely satisfied-if you are not convinced that it is the best machine you have ever sewed on—the most improved—the most up-to-date—if the low price does not convince you that this is the biggest bargain you have ever bought, return the machine to us and we will refund your deposit so that the trial will not cost you a cent.

You haven't any idea how it will surprise you and how delighted you will be to keep it after you have sewed on it for 30 days. We know that you would never think of parting with it. Like all other women you will be in a flutter of excitement and enthusiasm about the many new inventions on The FREE. Our only reason for giving you this fair trial offer, is because we want you to have it 30 days. -to let your feet find out that its 8 sets of Ball bearings have made The PREE the lightest -to see the real beauty of its French leg design and dustless japanning.
